CLEAR OBJECTIVES:- GOAL SETTING

Fix up your goal, and then run towards your goal like a strong man with full determination. Nothing stands in the way of a determined man. When you fixed a goal or definite objective in your study, it will encourage you to react to what you read or hear, and therefore, you become an active learner and learn more.

HAVE A PROPER PLANNING:- Time Management

Plan for study of different subjects. Your every hour of every day should be planned properly.

SET PRIORITIES

Enlist them and put in front of you. You have to complete many works and assignment in a day. You have many subjects to complete. Prioritize them not according to your choice but according to the importance and according to the demand of the time.

HAVE AN APPROPRIATE SCHEDULING

There is no Magic formula for becoming a genius or scoring high grades but the formation of correct study habits will go a long way to guarantee the success.

Learning does not just happen as a result of reading or listening; it is the attitude and mental process which promotes learning.

Learning is not a passive process of absorbing the knowledge; it is an active process of our minds reaching out to seize information and convert them into meaningful ideas.

HAVE SELF DISCIPLINE

Do what is right at the right time at the right place. Have control over yourself. You be the master of yourself and let no one control and rule over you, neither your feeling, likes and dislikes, your friends, nor the surrounding in which you live. Rather you control and rule them. Let the word discipline be a very dear word to you. There is no other formula of success except the formula of discipline.

DO ONE THING AT A TIME

Be focused on your objectives. When you study English be focused in English, when you study Physics, be focused on Physics and so on. There fore on your study table there should be only one thing. Concentration is power, energy, feel it. Scattered mind stands no where.

HAVE SELF CONFIDENCE

Before you believe in God, believe in yourself. There is no greater sin than not believing in oneself. You are unique. There is no one like you. God has bestowed upon you so many good things. Accept them and acknowledge your worth. At the same time avoid over confidence that will kill your real self.

BE RELAXED

Do not take unnecessary tensions. Avoid too much of socializing, visiting and meeting your friends and relatives. Do not get into unnecessary discussions. As far as avoid unnecessary family and social gatherings. Do not expose yourself too much in front of the television and with the telephone. Use them to relax. Be to yourself, no body can be your best friend except you. Do your best and God will do the rest.
