

The contest was held at Ramoji Film City, Hyderabad and hosted by Andhra-Telangana Region. The Contest had only the 9 best speakers from regions from the country. It is thus a great achievement to be one of the finalists. Only the best speakers from these 9 regions represented their regions. The finalists had previously qualified at two levels (zonal and regional) to be eligible to represent their regions. Alokit Charles represented as a champion of the Bihar Jharkhand Region which has almost 200 hundred schools.

He delivered speech of Dalai Lama on World peace and Ecological Balance.

He has been the usual face from our school in the field of speech and declamation and has been winning a good number of contests in this regard.

He was also the winner in the Annual Inter Jesuit Elocution Championship held this year in Hazaribagh.

Hearty Congratulations ALOKIT!
